Hello FSDB families!

This is just a quick message to let you know your child's educational materials and/or devices (as needed) are on the way to you. This delivery will be coming via FedEx or UPS and will require your signature upon receipt. We anticipate most of deliveries being made on Thursday, April 2, but transit times vary according to destination. If you'd like to monitor delivery, please send your child's assistant principal an email and he/she can provide your tracking number. This number may be entered on the FedEx or UPS websites or using their apps.

Our teachers and specialists are excited to welcome your children to their new virtual environment and re-engage their instruction. We know it won't all go as seamlessly as we'd like, but we'll learn and grow together. Have a wonderful weekend and we look forward to working with you to kick off our new way of learning on Monday!
